

Presentation

1. Listen to Ana's story and fill in the blanks.

My daughter Ana said she'd like to have a big house on the beach one day. She'd like to have two dogs and a cat to play with in the house. "I'd like to go out and play with them on the beach in the summer, when the _____ is nice", she said. She is not sure if she'd like to have a pet fish, because they are too quiet and don't know how to play.

2. Mark the sentences T for true, and F for false.

1. Ana would like to have a big house on the beach. T
2. Ana would like to have two cats and a dog. T
3. She wouldn't like to have fish, because they don't know how to play. T
4. Ana would like to play on the beach when it's raining. F

PRACTICE

1. Make the sentences positive.

1. I wouldn't like to go to the river and see the fish.

I would like to go to the river and see the fish.

2. Tom wouldn't like to have a cat.

Tom would like to have a cat.

3. Ana wouldn't like to go to the park and play there.

Ana would like to go to the park and play there.

4. I wouldn't like a cup of tea.

I would like a cup of tea.

2. Would like to or would like?

1. a cup of tea (would like/ would like to)
2. run in the park with my dog (would like/ would like to)
3. go to the beach in the summer (would like/ would like to)
4. a sandwich (would like / would like to)